MAIN EVENT

A Celebration of Bud Newman

November 15, 2017

“When you reap the harvest of your Land, you shall not completely remove the corner of your field during your harvesting, and you shall not gather up the gleanings of your harvest. [Rather,] you shall leave these for the poor person and for the stranger. I am the Lord, your G-d.”

President & CEO

What an honor to be with you on this wonderful evening of communal celebration! The Main Event is such a special opportunity each year for our Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia communities to gather and reflect on all the good we do together.

Every day, in so many ways, we carry the light of Jewish values. With the strength of our collective resources and energy, we are enabled to make a measurable difference in the lives of hundreds of thousands of Jews, year in and year out, through an incredible array of social service, Jewish education and identity-building programs. The sheer scope of service is breathtaking: from birth to preschool, from teenagers to college students; to interfaith families; to people living with disabilities; to those who are hungry and in need of a meal to those who hunger to connect, belong and learn; to our older adults, to whom we owe all our love, respect and gratitude.

Tonight, we are filled with appreciation for the part each person plays in fulfilling our mission of community-building and service. We give thanks to Immediate Past Board Chair Bud Newman, our honoree, whose enduring commitment makes him a model of stewardship. Special thanks also for the devoted efforts of tonight's co-chairs, Hallee and David Adelman and Rebecca and Ben Kirshner.

And we are most thankful for YOU. Only through everyone's participation and generosity is the Jewish Federation strong, efficient and responsive enough to accomplish all that we do. Whether you give of your time, your talent or your treasure, you help us to Carry the Light locally, in Israel and around the world.

We look forward to seeing you throughout the year, because there is still so much work to be done. Tonight, we lift our glasses in l'chaim to each and every one of you!

In gratitude,

Rebecca and Ben Kirshner
Main Event Co-Chairs

Thank you for joining us for this year's Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia's Main Event. We thank everyone, especially our sponsors and Main Event committee, for making this such a thrilling evening celebrating our Jewish Federation and the collective impact we make locally, in Israel and around the world.

We're especially excited that tonight's event honors Immediate Past Board Chair Bud Newman, and will also give you an opportunity to meet our new Board Chair, Susanna Lachs Adler (if you haven't already had the pleasure). Both Susanna and Bud are inspiring Jewish leaders. Please be sure to say hello to each of them!

It means so much to come together as a community on a night like this. To be surrounded by Jewish Federation supporters is to be among like-minded people: People who, just like you, are passionate about our Jewish communities' continued vitality. Guided by our shared values of Giving, Inclusion and Tradition, the Jewish Federation does the crucial work of serving vulnerable populations, facilitating community engagement and promoting Jewish life and learning — the keystones of maintaining a healthy, vibrant Jewish culture.

We feel fortunate to be surrounded by friends new and old, and friends we have yet to meet, who understand the importance of investing in our own Jewish future. We have so enjoyed planning this special night for you — our Jewish Federation community — and found it a rewarding experience. We look forward to getting to know as many of you as possible tonight, and at future events throughout 5778.

With our sincere appreciation,

Hallee and David Adelman

Leading our Jewish communities through GIVING, INCLUSION and TRADITION.

For more than a century, the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia has been proud to Carry the Light by embracing three key roles: convening the communities, encouraging and stewarding the generosity of our donors, and making grants to meet critical needs.

The Jewish Federation mobilizes financial and volunteer resources to address the communities' most critical priorities locally, in Israel and around the world.

Bernard ("Bud") Newman

Immediate Past Board Chair

Bud Newman is President and CEO of Newman & Company, a 98-year old, fourth-generation, family-owned recycled paperboard manufacturer, located in Philadelphia, PA. He is also Chairman of its affiliates United States Recycling, Inc., Mill Corporation and Bridge View Paper Company, LLC.

Bud received a BS in Business Administration from Rider University, and served in the U.S. Army. He has been a board member of Albert Einstein Medical Center; Big Brothers Big Sisters; Friends' Central School; Mann Center for the Performing Arts; Mercer Museum; Rosenbach Museum & Library and The Free Library of Philadelphia, as well as a number of other organizations involving the arts, education, healthcare and religion.

In September 2014, Bud accepted the position of Board Chair of the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia out of his strong desire to enhance and grow the Jewish Federation for the betterment of Jewish people locally, in Israel and throughout the world.

Bud is an antique collector, farmer, world traveler, lover of the outdoors and an avid fly fisherman. He and his wife Judy have been married for over 50 years and they have three children and 10 grandchildren.

Dear Mr. Newman,

I want to offer you my sincere congratulations on being honored for your work as Board Chair of the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia.

This recognition is an acknowledgment of your hard work, commitment and service to the community. As a Chairman, President and CEO of Newman & Company Inc., an active board member for the Mercer Museum in Doylestown, the Rosenbach Museum and Library in Philadelphia, and as a past board member at Albert Einstein Medical Center, Big Brother Big Sisters and many others organizations, your effective leadership stood out as an example for others. During your tenure as Campaign Chair and President of the Jewish Federations, you have helped to raise millions of dollars to help those in the Jewish community here and abroad. You can take great pride in a job well done, and I applaud all of your accomplishments.

Again, please accept my congratulations on this well-deserved honor and my best wishes for the future.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

It is my privilege to write to you today to express my deep gratitude to Bernard "Bud" Newman, for his many years of contribution to the State of Israel.

Over his tenure as President of the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia, Bud Newman has taken on multiple projects with the goal of reaching out to people and improving our community. I thank him for the vision which he has charted and for his exemplary leadership.

It has been a gratifying experience to work with Bud and I would like to recognize his unwavering support for Israel. While his involvement with the Jewish community and with the State of Israel will most certainly continue, it gives me great pleasure, at this time, to acknowledge him and wish him only the best in his future endeavors. Our community has certainly benefited from his service and we will continue to reap the benefits of his hard work for many years to come.

On behalf of the State of Israel, please accept my heartfelt wishes for a future of continued success as you cultivate and inspire our most precious resource, our children.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Newman:

As your Congressman, it gives me great pleasure to congratulate you for your exemplary service as Board Chair of the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia. Your landmark tenure has concluded; however, your influence continues and has increased the quality of life for the most vulnerable populations throughout the Philadelphia region and abroad.

Under your leadership, contributions to the Jewish Federation have exceeded expectations. Your and your wife's contributions of money, time and energy are extraordinary. Of special note is your dedication to the Mitzvah Food Project and the contributions of food raised on your farm that have helped to nourish those in need throughout the region. Your calm and steady leadership in times of crisis – whether responding to acts of anti-Semitism in the region or violence in Israel – are a hallmark of your tenure.

None of this should come as a surprise to anyone who knows you. Under your stewardship, your company, Newman & Company, has thrived. You are the third in your family to serve as President of this century-old family business. You are much sought-after to serve on various boards throughout the region running the gamut of philanthropic, business and cultural organizations. Jewish Federation has been truly blessed to have you at the helm for the past three years.

Congratulations again for your excellent public service in a time of great opportunity, challenge and accomplishment. Best wishes to you as you undertake new challenges.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Bernard Newman:

It is with great pleasure that I acknowledge your years of service to the Jewish community in the Philadelphia region as you conclude your three-year term as Board Chair of the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia.

For more than 110 years, the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia has been supporting and promoting the strength of the Jewish community in Greater Philadelphia, in Israel and around the world. Throughout the years, their mission has been ably supported by a Chairman of the Board of Directors and Board of Trustees. You have held that position for the past three years and served with distinction. I am pleased to send you my congratulations and best wishes as you conclude your tenure.

It is my hope that everyone has an enjoyable time at this year's "Main Event" as they gather to celebrate your commitment to the Jewish Federation. I am looking forward to your organization's continued great work in our area and across the globe.

Dear Mr. Newman,

As your State Representative, I am writing to congratulate you on your distinguished term as Chair of the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia.

As the Chairman, President and CEO of Newman & Company, a 100 year-old family business, you are certainly well known throughout the region for both your business acumen and your numerous charitable endeavors. And as Chair of the Jewish Federation, you have been a true leader in your support of the community throughout the region and abroad. You have been especially passionate about food insecurity, and your generous donations of produce grown on your New Hope farm have had a lasting impact in addressing this concern. Under your stewardship, the quality of life for the most vulnerable members of the Jewish community has dramatically increased.

Your willingness to devote time toward the betterment of the community is noteworthy and an inspiration that has impacted the entire region. Thank you for your leadership and your advocacy on behalf of the Jewish community. I wish you all the best in the future.

Best wishes,

In Recognition of Chairman Bernard “Bud” Newman

It is my honor and privilege to welcome all those gathered in celebration of the incredible career and service of Bud Newman, Board Chair of the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia.

Throughout the history of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, we have been strengthened and empowered by our vibrant and diverse communities. Pennsylvanians have benefited immensely from the celebration of our diversity and the Jewish Community has been an exceptional contributor to that celebration. Since 1901, the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia has spearheaded the cause of promoting and advancing vital services and programs that improve people’s quality of life both in Pennsylvania, Israel, and abroad.

While at the helm of that organization for the last three years, Bud Newman has championed the cause of the Jewish Community and diligently worked toward the advancement of the Federation. He has been a staunch and fearless advocate for the most vulnerable in the community and a strong supporter of the State of Israel. His dedication, leadership, and commitment to the highest values of scripture will no doubt leave a powerful legacy and inspire future generations for many years to come.

As Attorney General, and on behalf of my entire Office, I am proud to be able to honor Bud Newman on his incredible career and I wish him all the best in his future endeavors.

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the United States Senate, I am pleased to salute Bernard Newman as he concludes his term as Board Chair of the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia. Chair Newman's significant tenure leading the Jewish Federation brought substantial improvement in the quality of life for the Jewish community's most vulnerable members both here and abroad. Under his leadership, the organization has also promoted Jewish culture as well as offering its steadfast support for Israel.

Mr. Newman's dedication to the community also extends beyond his work at the Jewish Federation. He is the Chairman, President and CEO of Newman and Company, Inc. and is a much sought-after board member for many organizations, including Einstein Medical Center, Big Brothers, Big Sisters, the Mercer Museum and the Rosenbach Museum and Library. A modest man, he does not tout his many accomplishments, but for those on whose benefit he has worked, there is no equal.

While he will undoubtedly be missed in his role as Chair of the Jewish Federation, I trust that his good work will be continued. He has left a lasting mark, not only on the Jewish Federation, but on our region. I wish Mr. Newman the very best and thank him for his service in the civic and business communities.

Sincerely,

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

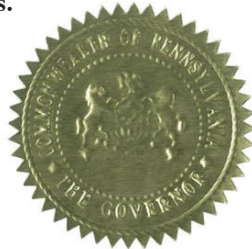

TO: BERNARD NEWMAN

It is my pleasure to join with the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia to recognize your dedicated service during your tenure as Board Chair.

Pennsylvania possesses a rich heritage of individuals who have made notable contributions to their communities and our commonwealth. Throughout your distinguished career, you have demonstrated unwavering dedication to carrying out the Jewish Federation's mission of offering financial and volunteer services to address community needs throughout the Delaware Valley region and around the world. Your strategic vision, guidance, and advocacy have led this organization to open the doors of possibility to empower countless individuals by providing a safety net and a network of resources. The commonwealth is privileged to have you as an example of public service and the values that move Pennsylvania forward. I am confident that your caliber of character, leadership, and inner strength, as well as your desire to help others develop these qualities in themselves, will inspire future generations of leaders for years to come.

As Governor, and on behalf of all citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I am pleased to express my gratitude for your service and to offer my sincere congratulations. Please accept my best wishes for success and happiness in your future endeavors.

of generosity.

With one simple action, you can spark something greater than yourself. That's what Bob James did back in 1962 when he founded Raymond James. To our Jewish Federation and its dynamic, wonderful team:

The Executive Leadership, Committee Leadership, Staff, Board of Directors, Board of Trustees, Lay Leadership, Event Co-Chairs and Event Committee Members...

We thank you all for your ongoing effectiveness in not only providing tremendously vital needs and services, but for simultaneously galvanizing the members of our community to passionately commit themselves to the mitzvot of communal activism, awareness, and leadership! In doing so, you truly heighten our access to some of the noblest aspects of who we are.

And we extend to you a very special thanks for your incredibly generous support of The Chevra: greatly fortifying our ability to provide important and meaningful experiences that help young Jewish adults foster inspiring connections to their community and heritage. We are honored to be a part of your extended family. Thank you for all you do, and may your lives be filled with purpose, passion and blessings!

To our dear friend Bud Newman:

Words fail in trying to express just how much you mean to the Jewish people in Greater Philadelphia... you are truly a one-of-a-kind mensch and a beloved gem, and you have uplifted our community over the years in countless ways!

We are also very grateful to you personally, not only for your tremendous generosity in supporting The Chevra, but also for the warmth, encouragement, friendship and mentorship you provide in the process. The Jewish Federation and all the other institutions you have touched are incredibly fortunate to be among those that benefit from your unique level of devotion to important causes.

We are so blessed to have you as a close friend, and we wish you much love along with the warmest of mazel tovs on this honor that you so deeply deserve.

May you and your beautiful family be blessed in all of the ways reserved for those who give of themselves so generously!

JEWISH RELIEF AGENCY

A huge mazel tov to Bud Newman as he is recognized for his remarkable leadership on our community's largest stage; and a gigantic note of appreciation for his and the Jewish Federation's amazing support throughout the years. Bud is a JRA folk hero, dating back to his first visit to our warehouse, where his tears welled up at the sight of over a thousand volunteers working together to package and deliver food to over six thousand low-income people. Then and always, Bud set an example for the importance of getting in touch with the true depth and meaning of our community's philanthropic work and the passion and emotion required for truly transcendent leadership. We thank Bud for that lesson and we wish him peace, health and continued success as he moves into his next stage of leadership.
