

A Guide to Chester County Synagogues

Chester County continues to be an active force in maintaining a strong Jewish community for people whose families have lived in the area for generations, as well as those who have relocated from other communities. According to the most recent Jewish population study conducted by the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia, more than 26,000 Jews call Chester County home. Among the community's Jewish resources are 8 synagogues, along with numerous Jewish organizations, collaborative educational experiences, service opportunities, and the Kehillah of Chester County.
